Bethesda's real-time strategy game The Elder Scrolls V: Skyrim is finally on Xbox 360, PS3, PC, Mac and Wii U. The action-RPG sequel was released in 2011 but the follow-up didn't get out until 2013. The Elder Scrolls Online was announced for PC and PS4 in 2013 too, but that seemed to be very unlikely. Skyrim and its success even led to the creation of mods that changed the game world in ways that are just impossible to mimic in a new game. The biggest of these mods is probably the Creation Kit which allows the users to create their own game maps, add items, potions, NPCs, modifications and even monsters. Some mods are even so good they have made their own official maps that contain everything the modder has created over a year. There are some that turn Skyrim into a fantasy versions of old games, and even some that focus on min-maxing and add new gameplay features that the developers probably never thought about. Some of these mods have been released for years, but we have handpicked a set of the best mods for players who just want to enjoy the new content without having to know all the details. You can find more information about the mods you find in the below video, so that you can then read about them in the gallery

Milwaukee. Right. I was wrong. (I don't seem to understand Dems) She didn't do anything in Milwaukee. No, but she can appoint fellow Dems who were elected in "her" district (named after the Japanese Emperor and his daughter [Meiji-nara, today's Akihito], when Akihito visited Milwaukee in 1977). Good "leadership" and all that. BJ-noma and company in the House are probably sitting there afraid of being called a liar because she didn't turn in papers and act "not knowing" about his non-handling of the affair. Why indeed should he be ashamed to answer such a question: "why would you turn this matter over to the Milwaukee County District Attorney's office?" BJ wouldn't know. BJ did have a duty to seek that reprimand to the DA. I'm surprised Abe didn't want to come to Milwaukee and appear under oath. They did because the noble and holy Quislings running things are afraid of perjury as you noted. That's why BJ and his fellow cons will stay quiet and Akima's defense of BJ will flow from the mouth of Harry Connick. And, I do still have a large batch of Empire State Life Insurance stock that I want to get rid of, and I rather doubt Akima is going
